UPDATES AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Hello again Legal Professions Association members! Last week we had a really amazing discussion with Richard Glenn a recent Elon Law School graduate. If you missed that, no worries because we have PLENTY of opportunities to learn about law school in the future.

February 5, 2020- Get to know Legal Professions Association just a little bit better! We will have a taco bar for those in attendance, a Kahoot with questions about our club (with a prize for the winner!), and a night of fun!

February 12, 2020- We will have another guest speaker from Elon Law. Cynthia Hernandez, a 2L JD candidate at Elon Law will be coming to talk to us about law school, admissions, and to answer your questions about law school!

We will see you at our meetings!

DO YOU HAVE A POST IDEA?

Do you have a really funny law related meme that you want to share with us and the rest of the club?

Do you have an event that could be added to the calendar so that more people know about it?

Do you know someone in the legal field that you want to see at one of our meetings talking to us?

Feel free to submit any ideas to us through our email: uncglpa@gmail.com!

This is what we're posting this week! Do you relate? Are you going to start using this? Let us know on our socials!
