

LEGAL PROFESSIONS ASSOCIATION

newsletter

October 30, 2019

Legal Professions Association News and Events

November 13, 2019: We're hosting an LSAT and law school admissions round table discussion!

We need panelists! If you have taken the LSAT please contact Lucas Godwin (lsgodwin@uncg.edu).

November 6, 2019: The University is hosting an LSAT strategy session workshop in Sullivan 355. RSVP is required! Contact: Shawn O'Neil (smoneil@uncg.edu)

November 22, 2019: We will be meeting at Elon Law (201 N Greene St, Greensboro, NC 27401) for an open house! Be sure to register on your own! (<https://fap.lisac.org/prospect.aspx?data=NTUwMAEBMTY%3d-WMdR80Hk20s%3d>)

Opportunities in the Legal Field

All are viewable on Handshake! This is just a few of MANY!

1. Law Summer Intern 2020- (Fort Worth, TX- BNSF Railway)
2. Spring 2020 Internship/Clerkship Opportunities- (Washington, DC- U.S. Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor and Pensions)
3. Intern- (Washington, DC- US Department of Homeland Security)

Law Related Classes at UNCG

There are a lot of classes offered at UNCG relating to law. Here are just a few:

1. Sexuality and Law (SOC 300X)
2. Law and Society (SOC 332)
3. Introduction to Law (PSC 280)
4. Civil Liberties (PSC 320)
5. Women and Law (PSC 336)

Check out the course catalog for more information on these courses!

Legal Fun Fact-

Metallica's lawyer sent a cease and desist letter to a cover band, Sandman. Then Lars Ulrich, the drummer, called the band and issued an apology and a blessing to continue playing.

Newman, J. (2016). Metallica, Canadian Cover Band Reconcile Over Cease and Desist Letter.

Retrieved from <https://www.rollingstone.com/music/music-news/metallica-canadian-cover-band-reconcile-over-cess-and-desist-letter-231366/>